

Dear members of the press,

After the summer break, we will open the new season in September with a special edition of Tanznacht Berlin!

This year, the festival celebrates its 25th anniversary with a 25-hour dance marathon at the Uferstudios Berlin. From the 8th of September, 7 p.m. to the 9th of September, 8 p.m. we have 80 Berlin-based dancers of different generations and backgrounds to present their artistic practice.

The format: In December 1998, Tanzfabrik Berlin celebrated its 20th anniversary with a gala. 18 dancers, choreographers and companies presented a "performative gift" in the sold-out Akademie der Künste. This lavish celebration was the birth of Tanznacht. Since the first official edition in 2000, Tanznacht has undergone many developments. The event moved to the Uferstudios, grew into a festival of several days and brought dance into conversation with other artistic disciplines. One thing remained unchanged: Each edition has been developed in response to the current issues, questions and challenges of Berlin's independent dance scene.

This special edition of the Tanznacht is conceived as a Relaxed Performance. One ticket gives you free access to 25 hours of artistic programming in Studio 14 and to the closing party.

All our Tanznacht artists are portrayed on our social media channels. Detailed information about the event, the accompanying program and accessibility can be found on the Tanznacht website: <http://tanznachtberlin.de>

We are happy to provide you with press tickets as well as photo material and we look forward to pre- and reviews of the event!

But most of all, we look forward to opening the new season with you!

Kind regards,
Anna Königshofer (she/her)
